SATURDAY, DEC. 6, 1873.

THE CUBAN TROUBLE,

The declaration by the representatives of the Spanish Government in Cuba that an attempt to execute the orders for the delivery of the Virginius and prisoners would excite a popular revolution, with the resignation of the Captain General to avoid enforcing the mandates, puts a new phase on our relations with Spain and the Island, which were regarded as in process of amicable adjustment. As the case now stands we must look to the Spanish Government to carry out its stipulations or to explain satisfactorily the cause of failure If that Government admits that it has not power to maintain its authority in Cuba, then we must hold the revolted colony directly responsible for any infraction of our rights, and in proceeding against it we should probably have the countenance and perhaps the co-operation of the Home authorities, provided the Castelar Government could sustain itself in a course of hostility toward the Cuban Volunteers

The Cubans are evidently fully convinced that the seizure of the Virginius was justifiable and that her surrender to us would be a dishonorable concession. The public feeling must be very intense when the slave-holders and wealthy estate owners of the Island are so exasperated as to provoke hostilities with this country which would be likely to result in the overthrow of their system and a sacrifice of all their property of title They must be aware that a conflict with the United States would be short and terribly disastrous to themselves, and their action shows that they have either gone mad or become thoroughly fired with such a sentiment of national pride as will indicate communications to make the most desperate struggle in behalf of what is held as a point of honor. In other case they cannot be allowed to set all authority at defiance and if Spain is unable to compel the observance of treaty obligations, other nations will be obliged to protect any of their rights involved in the rebellious protocol

At present our Government will naturally wish to ascertain what Spain is going to do about it and despatches from Madrid indicate that the question is proving a serious embarrassment to the Republican Cabinet In the mean to arouse naval and military departments are continuing preparations for any emergency which may arise, although the great mass of our people will still hope that further bloodshed in this matter may be averted

SPEAKER BLAINE

The firm stand taken by Speaker Blaine in assuming entire responsibility for the appointment of the House committees, the dignified manner in which he has borne himself with reference to the renomination, and his admirable terse but comprehensive address upon taking the chair, have elicited the warmest praise in all sections and from both political parties As an example of the commendation evoked from political opponents, we cite the following paragraph, in which the Boston Post says as do the partisan spirit long enough to indulge for once in the luxury of speaking fairly of an opponent

It would be pleasant to believe that the graceful and patriotic speech made by Mr Blaine upon receiving the flattering distinction of a third election as Speaker of the National House of Representatives, represents the tone of the body over which he has been called upon to preside That it has too much to hope, it is none the less due to acknowledge the confidence which his clearly stated position has inspired His address was practical, but that was not its best feature in a time like this, for, wisely leaving politics organized on out of sight, he allowed himself to be led from sound premises by natural sequences to the broad and true ground he we are not or should not be working for partisan interests of the good of a few, but for the highest common good of the many. With a territory reaching from ocean to ocean, over which population is spreading with resistless sweep, and all represented by the body that Mr Blaine was addressing, he could not have chosen a motto more appropriate watchword than one country, one Coast Union, one destiny." His words have been words of wisdom, and we may reasonably expect his actions to correspond Certainly no one else in the Republican party could bring the experience that Mr Blaine possesses to bear upon the now more than ever difficult and important work of his position, and it is gratifying to mark of his phrases and sections to find him rising, above partisanship to a high level of statesmanship and patriotism. It is an example that must have a salutary effect both in Congress and abroad among the people

The editor of the New York Mail, writing from Washington, thus alludes to the Speaker

"Ever since Mr Blaine has so discharged the duties of his office for four years past that both the House and the country have come to honor him for brilliant qualities of mind in effect, for his general adherence to justice, and for his love of fair play. Probably since the time when imperious Henry Clay ruled the House with a rod of iron or moved it by his eloquence, no Speaker has shown a greater diversity of valuable gifts than Mr Blaine May he live up to the highest estimate of his best friends

Hon. Eugene Hale promptly verified our prediction that he would lead off in Congress the salary repeal, and in consequence of his action Speaker Blaine has placed him at the head of the special committee to prepare a bill for the purpose The committee, which is authorized to report at any time, is as follows Messrs Eugene Hale of Maine, chairman, Kasson of Iowa, Schofield of Pennsylvania Maynard of Tennessee, Hale, of N Y, Niblack, of Ind and Jewett, of O

The London Times's correspondent says in the appointment of the committee Mr Blaine was careful to select the majority from the friends of the repeal, and notably in the choice of Mr Hale as chairman he has found the most prominent advocate of the repeal in the House

Among the most important of the propositions introduced in the House is the constitutional amendment suggested by Mr Wilson of Indiana, which provides that the United States shall hereafter guarantee the credit of no individual or corporation, that it shall give no land grants, that Senators shall be elected by ballot, that the President and Vice President shall be elected for six years.

In view of the imprisonment of Tweed and the attempt on the life of Comptroller Green, the Belfast Journal thinks it is not pleasant to be an official in the metropolis, saying: "If he is a rogue he is sent to the penitentiary, and if honest his life is made miserable by infernal machines

The London Times publishes an official list of the British subjects taken prisoners on the steamer Virginius and afterward executed at Santiago. The Times' comments on the act, saying that the British Government, while demanding a surrender of the survivors, must carefully avoid committing itself to the proposition that the seizure of the Virginius was illegal

THE STORMS ELSEWHERE. The recent furious storms caused serious damage in Canada, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, and Michigan Trees were blown down, rivers flooded, vessels cast ashore, barns, houses and churches unroofed and buildings set on fire by lightning In Dayton, O, a brick building four stories high and 150 feet long was razed to the ground, at Fort Wayne a railroad car was blown from the track, at Paris a flouring mill and railroad depot were unroofed, and at Detroit the iron roof of the Central freight depot was blown into the river. Similar reports are received from Canada.

THE CHIEF-JUSTICESHIP. A Washington despatch states that the President tendered the Chief-Justiceship to Senator Conkling who declined it; that he then wished to appoint Caleb Cushing and retain Attorney General Williams in the Cabinet until near the expiration of the Presidential term, calculating that by that time Cushing would refire by reason of age and in that event he would appoint Williams. The proposed appointment of Cushing not being considered expedient by the Cabinet hastened the President's purpose to appoint Williams. The nomination of Chief-Justice Chase was confirmed the same day it was sent to the Senate, but in this case considering the importance of the position and without discourtesy to Mr. Williams, it has been thought best that the nomination shall go through all the preliminary forms in accordance with the rules. The nomination of Mr. Williams as Chief Justice was on Thursday referred to the Committee on Judiciary, but no further action taken in the Executive session. It is stated that the President from the beginning made up his mind not to appoint a successor to Chief Justice Chase from the Supreme Bench

The Portland Advertiser closes a very fair and candid review of the President's Message, as follows

In fine the message, though not so clear and explicit as could be desired, still tends steadily in the direction of specie payments, revenue reform, civil service reform and general amnesty—solvency, unity, integrity and charity It is the work of an honest magistrate, dealing faithfully and on the whole successfully with a difficult task for which a lifetime of preparation would be hardly too much, but to which he was summoned five years ago with absolutely no political experience or training His administration hither to has been singularly fortunate for himself and the country, and if the same good fortune attends him to the end, will long be remembered as a happy era in our history

The British armor plated man of war Bellerophon collided with the Brazil steamer Hamstead, and the latter was so badly damaged that she sunk soon afterward. All the passengers, officers and crew were rescued by the Bellerophon and brought to St Vincent

The Franklin, 30 guns, and the iron clads Ajax and Terror, the former carrying 2 and the latter four guns, will be ready Monday to join the North Atlantic squadron.

THE VIRGINIUS CASE !

The Excitement in Cuba !

VIOLENT ABUSE OF CASTELAR !

Spanish Organs Defiant !

THE COURSE OF OUR GOVERNMENT !

WAITING FOR SPAIN TO ACT !

PREPARING FOR ANY RESULT !

A PUZZLE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. The adjourned meeting of Spanish citizens residing in New York and Brooklyn, which was to have taken place, was a fiasco, only about twenty persons being present

THE VIRGINIUS AND THE FLAG.

A Washington despatch says that the State Department has been assured by the owner of the Virginius that from the time the vessel left New York she had done nothing calculated in the slightest degree to injure the validity of her register or her right to sail under the American flag. It is admitted that she was chartered to the Cuban Junta

THE NAVAL FORCE.

Admiral Porter says that the duty of commanding the fleet which is to receive the Virginius, will devolve on Admiral Scott Admiral Porter does not apprehend any difficulty with regard to the giving up of the Virginius.

ARRIVED AT KEY WEST

A Key West despatch says that the Osipee and monitor Mahopac from Fortress Monroe stood the gale well though temporarily separated Eighty-three naval recruits arrived from New Orleans last night

A SUSPICIOUS CRAFT

The schooner Albert W Smith, the fastest sailing schooner of the Sound, has cleared for Key West with a cargo of coal She also carried 10 heavy cases marked "linseed oil" and eight long peculiar looking boxes which required many men to lift them in the hold, besides other articles as she has been seized by several well known members of the Cuban Junta, it is believed that she has gone to sea to supply Cuban privateers

BITTER FEELING IN HAVANA—CASTELAR DENOUNCED

KEY WEST, Dec 5 The latest private advices from Havana represent the war fever as abating slowly. The Castelar Government is denounced by its hitherto warm supporters for what is called servility to the United States Volunteers proclaim a determination under no circumstances to yield to the Executive and accusing it of having been bought by American gold

THE HOME GOVERNMENT DEFIED

La Constancea says in a leader that the time has at last arrived for the true Spaniards to be ready for a fight, and that those who are rebels and traitors will sell their honor and their rights to this land for strangers' gold, that the Minister for the Colonies Soler, has ordered the release of embargoed properties of American citizens, but that Spaniards will refuse obedience to the Home Government, that is so debased and corrupted as to yield to the exigencies of the American Government

A CHALLENGE TO BATTLE

La Constancea counsels the Captain General to have everything ready for defence by land and sea. Every man between 18 and 40 years must be enrolled to take arms, and all travellers and laborantes must be expelled from the Island. The article concludes with many Carlistic statements and challenges the American people to fight

FROM WASHINGTON—THE NEWS FROM HAVANA.

WASHINGTON, Dec 5. The news from Havana published this morning, occasions very great interest in all quarters Cabinet officers who have been called upon to-day, have no important news to communicate There is a full attendance at the Cabinet meeting to day and there is a probability of a prolonged session.

DOUBTS OF SPANISH AUTHORITY

Many specular ons exist as to the results of the delay in the delivery of the Virginius to the Government by the Spanish authorities in Havana The opinion is expressed that Spain will be unable to enforce the order but that they vessel should be taken from the harbor and conveyed beyond its jurisdiction and then delivered to such United States vessel as might be sent to receive it; preparation being made to give timely notice of the transfer. It is considered that this course will give less occasion for offence than if one or more of our ships should go directly to Havana for that purpose.

OUR GOVERNMENT

leaves to Spain the fulfillment of its obligation. But if this should prove impracticeable the facts will be reported to Congress for its action.

LESS HOPEFUL OF SPAIN'S ABILITY.

The diplomatic branch of our Government is not so hopeful now as several days ago of the ability of Spain to carry out its orders, although the honest intentions of the Castelar Government are admitted. The suggestion of a modification of the Protocol that the Virginius may be delivered to a third party to await adjudication does not at present meet with any official favor.

WHY THERE ARE NO U. S. VESSELS AT HAVANA.

The statement as published to-day that there was not one United States naval vessel at Havana yesterday is accounted for by the fact that it was a part of an arrangement between Secretary Fish and the Spanish Minister that there should be no show of menace whatever on our part, which could not fail to increase the excitement at Havana and elsewhere in Cuba, while a plan of release was intended to be effected yesterday in the quietest manner possible.

A CUBAN'S REPORT.

A Cuban gentleman who returned from Washington says he conversed with Secretary Fish and several executors, and they assured him that further diplomacy with Spain on the Virginius question would be declined. They believed the Spanish authorities in Cuba would refuse to accede to the provisions of the Protocol, and war will probably be the result.

The report that the Capt. General and Provincial Minister tendered their resignations is generally credited by Cubans.

THE NEW YORK SPANISH ORGAN.

The editor of the El Cronista, the Spanish organ in this city, stated to-day that he had received many letters from Spanish subscribers in Cuba since the signing of the Protocol, in which it was firmly stated that the Virginius would not be given up to the United States

A DISCREDITED REPORT.

It was reported to day that President Grant consulted the Attorney General in relation to arresting the editor of the El Cronista for treasonable utterances in his paper in this city No credit, however, is given to this report.

CUBAN REVOLT PREDICTED—JOVELLAR IN LEAGUE WITH THE CARLISTS.

The editor of the El Cronista to-day states that Captain General Jovellar of Cuba was one of the first to express himself in favor of the action at Santiago de Cuba He will not resign He will if he has not already stated to President Castellar his unwillingness to accede to the Governmental demand of prophesy that Castellar will send a successor, that Jovellar will announce himself Governor of Cuba, that every man in Spain will sympathize with him and that when he declares war, as he will, if Castelar does not retract his present action, the Spaniards will hurl the latter from the balconies of his residence He is with the people, they will kill him

AT THE NAVY YARD.

NEW YORK, Dec 5. The Arapiles is still lying in the dry dock though she appears ready to leave. The Spaniards are anxious to have her towed out, but it is said the flood gates at the dock need repair. A number of men were engaged to day in soldering up the seams in the dock The Colorado has her main and guns on board and will leave the yard to-morrow. The Florida is being rapidly put in order. Her bow is to be heavily plated as a ram, and a heavy 9-inch battery will be mounted. Her engines and those of the three turreted Roanoke will be tried Sunday

NO NEWS FROM HAVANA

NEW YORK, Dec 6—2 A M It is a significant fact that not a word has been received to day, or to night, by the wires from Havana Even the usual Havana markets and commercial reports have not been received

SAD FATE OF A FORMER RESIDENT OF BANGOR A despatch has been received at Savannah announcing the death at Allen G Jones, formerly of Bangor, Me, but more recently of Savannah, Ga, whence he fled last spring, being a defaulter to the Southern Bank of Georgia, of which he was book keeper, to the amount of $30,000. FAIR The attendance on the Fair in Norombega Hall last evening was very large, and the tableaux exhibited on the stage were finely gotten up and much applauded. The Bangor Cornet Band furnished excellent music, as on the preceding evenings, and a social hop in which a large number participated, closed the evening's entertainment. To night is the last of the Fair and we doubt not will be a crowded house

BANGOR LIBRARY. Mr. Editor —At the commencement of the present year I paid eight dollars for the use of a certain number of books at a time from the Bangor Library Association and the rights of the reading room attached thereto. Some four weeks ago I was notified to forthwith return all books charged to me to said Association. I did so, and have been unable since that time to draw books from the Library. I cannot get a satisfactory explanation of the cause of the apparent confused state of affairs. I am entitled to a return, pro rata, of my eight dollars or its equivalent—books. Will an explanation be given? A MEMBER.

PENOBSCOT COUNTY FARMERS' CLUB. The meeting of this association in Glenburn on Wednesday was well attended. The afternoon session was held in the schoolhouse in District No. 1, and the evening session at the house of Mr. C. A. Fairrett. The presence of quite a large number of ladies was a new feature, and the discussions were spirited and interesting. The next meeting will be held in the school house in East Corinth on Thursday of next week at 10 o'clock A. M. The questions for discussion are: "What is the best method of disposing of our dairy products?"—to be opened by Messrs C. A. Fawsett and E. Hill of Glenburn—and "How shall farmers procure farm labor at prices to compare with prices of farm products?"—to be opened by Messrs. W. E. Gibbs of Glenburn and Hebron Luce of Bangor

MINCED MEAT. At a shooting match in a town in Waldo county, Thanksgiving day, a hungry young man ate eighteen mince pies—we have the authority of the Belfast Journal for this story, and of course it's true. Had it stated that he ate eight, instead of eighteen, the story as well as the pies would have been easier to swallow. But the thing was not well done though perhaps the pies were. He was one of the upper crust, but evidently had a soft spot somewhere He couldn't digest the pies an' though he didn't want to die just so, the pieces things "coolred" him. Had his love for the pie-plate been a trifle more platonic and less affection instead of a fierce flame, he would have come out of the furnace of affliction unscorched. But this digression is assuming a wide range, and as it is not meat to mince matters, we may as well state that the eating was overdone, and the youth was rolled out a corpse the next day. "Pectas fundamentum est omnium virtutum," which, liberally translated, means that everything is lovely with pie eaters

THE SAN DOMINGO PROTECTORATE. The application of President Baez, of San Domingo for an American protectorate of that country, is made in a letter dated August 18, 1870. The writer reviews the historic struggle of San Domingo to establish its independence, and to secure internal peace, always against the secret instigation and open hostilities of Hayti And was for these reasons that annexation to the United States was desired. The failure of that plan brought new difficulties by adding to the jealousy and hatred of their neighbors, and, says President Baez, "the Samana Bay Company has given to this situation, especially since the noise of its establishment has been succeeded by the most absolute silence and the most listless indifference." This is a hard hit on the projectors of that enterprise The Dominicans believe, therefore, that security for the future can best be obtained by the establishment of an efficient protectorate, which may preserve them from unwarranted attacks made at their very existence, and they hope that this will not be disastrous even to American opponents of annexation. This manner, however, in which the proposition will be received here will be likely to have an enlightening effect.

The increase in shipbuilding in the country is decided. "BEYOND THE JORDAN."

BY LONGON MILLER

And they came to him, mothers of Judah,
Daughters of Israel, in splendor of hair,
Beautiful brows over shoulders of beauty
And bosoms half hidden, half-bare,

And they brought him their babes and besought him.
He kneeling with supplicant air,
And saw the brown cherubs they brought him
With baby hands laid in their hair

Then reaching his hands, he said lowly,
"Much is my Kingdom," and then
Gave the brown little babes in the holy
White hands of the Saviour of men.

Held them close to his heart and caressed them,
Put his face down to theirs as in prayer,
Put their hands to his cheek, and so blessed them,
With baby hands laid in his hair

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,

Passed at the Third Session of the Forty-second Congress.

Convention between the United States of America and Denmark Naturalization Concluded July 20, 1872, ratified January 22, 1873, Ratifications exchanged March 14 1873, Proclaimed April 15, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and the Majesty the King of Denmark, for the naturalization of citizens and subjects of the two countries, was concluded and signed at Copenhagen, by their respective plenipotentiaries, on the twentieth day of July, 1872, the original of which convention, being in the English and Danish languages, is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark being desirous to regulate the citizenship of the citizens of the United States of America who have emigrated or who may emigrate from the United States of America to the Kingdom of Denmark, and of Danish subjects who have emigrated, or who may emigrate, from the Kingdom of Denmark to the United States of America, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose, and have named as their plenipotentiaries, that is to say: The President of the United States of America, Mr. Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States, at Copenhagen, and His Majesty the King of Denmark, Otto Didier Baron Rosenorn-Lehn, commander of Dannebrog and Dannebrogsmand, chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c. &c. &c.

Who have communicated to each other their respective full powers found to be in good and due form, having agreed upon and concluded the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE I

Citizens of the United States of America who have become or shall become, and are naturalized according to law, within the Kingdom of Denmark as Danish subjects, shall be held by the United States of America to be in all respects and for all purposes Danish subjects, and shall be treated as such by the United States of America.

In like manner, Danish subjects who have become or shall become, and are naturalized according to law, within the United States of America as citizens thereof, shall be held by the Kingdom of Denmark to be in all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America, and shall be treated as such by the Kingdom of Denmark.

ARTICLE II

If any naturalized citizen of the United States shall renew his residence in the territory of the Kingdom of Denmark, without the intention of returning to the United States, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in favor of his former allegiance, and incur the penalties prescribed by the laws of Denmark against those who abandon their allegiance without permission. The intention not to return may be held to exist when the person naturalized remains more than two years in the territory of his former allegiance, or more than five years in any country in which he has established his residence without having manifested during that time by some formal act his intention to preserve his character as a citizen of the United States.

In like manner, if a Dane, naturalized in the United States, renews his residence in Denmark without the intention to return to the United States, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in favor of that of his former allegiance, and incur the penalties prescribed by the laws of Denmark against those who abandon their allegiance without permission. The intention not to return may be held to exist when the person naturalized remains more than two years in the territory of his former allegiance, or more than five years in any country in which he has established his residence without having manifested during that time by some formal act his intention to preserve his character as a Danish subject.

ARTICLE III

The present convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Majesty the King of Denmark; and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as may be within eight months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this convention and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done at Copenhagen, in duplicate, this twentieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

MICHAEL J CRAMER
O D ROSENORN-LEHN.

And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications were exchanged at Copenhagen on the twenty-first day of March, 1873, by Michael J Cramer minister resident of the United States of America, and Count Ingen-ried Otto Didier Rosenorn Lehn Councillor of Legation and Dannebrogsmand chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, acting on the part of their respective governments:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Ulysses S Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and citizens thereof.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-seventh.
